

Table of Contents

1. Introduction to Special Issue: Ethics for Human Flourishing 1 - 4

DOI: 10.5281/zenodo.20575126

PART I - Diagnosing the ethical dangers of unrestrained ambition and power

2. When Ambition Overrides Moral Duty: Reputation, Power, and Ethical Regression in Workplace Relationships 5 - 11

DOI: 10.5281/zenodo.20574771

3. The Ethical Consequences of Excessive Pursuit of Fame, Fortune, and Power on Workplace Relationships 12 - 30

DOI: 10.5281/zenodo.20574805

4. The Laundering of Power: Leadership Rhetoric, Moral Arrest, and the Erosion of Organizational Life 31 - 47

DOI: 10.5281/zenodo.20574850

PART II - How can organizations become more adaptive, inclusive, and responsive

5. Cognitive Dissonance and Its Resolution in Reverse Mentoring Among Senior Leaders in Startups 48 - 71

DOI: 10.5281/zenodo.20574928

6. Decoding Gen Z Workforce Attrition: A Quantitative Study on Workplace Expectations, Values, and Retention Strategies 72 - 84

DOI: 10.5281/zenodo.20574959

PART III - How measurable ethical performance and sustainable finance shape investment, tourism, climate resilience, and long-term development

7. The Influence of Outcome-Based Ethical Performance on Foreign Direct Investment and Tourism Flows: A Panel Data Study 85 - 111

DOI: 10.5281/zenodo.20575034

8. Green Finance and Sustainable Development in India's BFSI Sector: Trends, Ethics, and the Future 112 - 162

DOI: 10.5281/zenodo.20575053